

1 A RESOLUTION honoring the Campbellsville University women's basketball team
2 upon reaching the NAIA Division I Final Four.

3 WHEREAS, after being defeated by the University of the Cumberlands on March 2, 4 2017, the Campbellsville University women's basketball team earned a berth in the NAIA 5 Division I National Championship in Billings, Montana; and

6 WHEREAS, after dispatching Talladega College and number eight-ranked Baker
7 University, Campbellsville took on undefeated and top-ranked Freed-Hardeman 8 University on March 18, 2017; and

9 WHEREAS, paced by Emily Fox's 20 points, Lexxus Graham's 16, and Madison 10 Stewart's 14, Campbellsville stunned Freed-Hardeman 73-70 and advanced to the 11 semifinals to take on Oklahoma City; and

12 WHEREAS, even though Campbellsville fell to Oklahoma City, the season was one 13 of the finest in program history, as it saw the Lady Tigers win 28 games against only 7 14 losses and compete for a national championship; and

15 WHEREAS, it is appropriate that this honorable body commend those athletic 16 teams who band together to achieve greatness; and

17 WHEREAS, in this spirit, the members congratulate the Campbellsville University 18 women's basketball team upon its successful 2016-2017 season, acknowledge the hard 19 work of Coach Ginger Colvin and her staff for what they have accomplished for these 20 student-athletes on and off the court, and commend the entire Campbellsville community 21 for its ardent and passionate support of this extraordinary team;

22 NOW, THEREFORE,

23 Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of
